THE BATTERED WOMEN'S SHELTER

A Program of Family Violence Prevention Services, Inc.

The mission of the Battered Women's Shelter is to break the cycle of family violence in the lives of those women and children who seek their services. It is a short term, residential, crisis intervention program that provides a 24-hour crisis hotline, medical services, educational workshops, children's programs, comprehensive case management, legal services and counseling services. They celebrated 25 years of service last year, serving some 2200 women and children,

Transplants for Children

Transplants for Children was founded in 1986 to assist transplant recipients and their families in effectively coping with the emotional, financial and social challenges which arise before, during and after transplantation.
